I have spent more time with my music.
I have spent more time with my art.
I have spent more time with my sports.
I have spent more time with my friends.
I have spent more time with my family.

This morning I sent a email to my grandad to see how he was coping with lockdown as he's a bit of a grumpy old man and that's saying something.

- Personal
- I spend more with my family
  - I learned some life skills
  - I learned to appreciate how my life was before lockdown
  - I watched a lot of good TV shows
  - I watched some of my favourite movies
- Local
- My street came together to clap for the NHS each night
  - We made drawings of cartoons to go in each other's windows
  - We had street parties (social distancing) that gave us a laugh and a nice time
- Global
- People are coming together to help others
  - People are appreciating the NHS more
  - People are keeping up with their friends and family
  - People are looking forward to the end of lockdown and everything about the future

- 20 positive things that have come out of lockdown
1. More family time - going on more walks and bike rides
  2. Appreciating family
  3. Realising how important friends are
  4. Coming to school with friends through technology
  5. Having more time to practise my football skills
  6. Being able to spend time being fit
  7. Having time to do reading with mum
  8. Playing more football with dad
  9. Being able to do school work from home
  10. Being my dog more

Dear Gran
It's been 3 days since our video chat, I'm missing you already hope you are well and that I can see you soon.
Lots of love
Harriet

  - I can see other people
  - weather
  - we can go outside
  - we can get food
  - can get medication
  - stay 2 meters

TO OUR BIN MEN, THANK YOU FOR YOUR HARD WORK IN LOCKDOWN AND ALWAYS! Ü

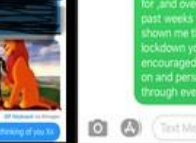

To Gran
I hope you're having better days and better nights. I'm missing you so much. I hope you're well and that I can see you soon. I love you so much. I hope you're well and that I can see you soon.

- LIST OF THINGS I'M GRATEFUL TO, LOCKDOWN FOR
- I have had more time to bond with my family members.
  - I have laughed more in Lockdown than I had before it.
  - I've had time to get better at video games, drawing and reading.

Hi Arwen thank you for your kindness to me. I have loved our conversations.

Friday 19/4/21
Esmee, I'm so excited to see you again in school in 2 weeks. You are the best friend I could have wished for, and over the last past weeks you've shown me that. Since lockdown you've encouraged me to carry on and persevere through everything.
